Dear Mary,

This is my second week travelling around Europe and I'm having a great time! The people here are very nice and the weather is good, even in Britain it was sunny and warm! We went to London from New York and spent five days there. London is a great city!

Unfortunately, we didn't see the British Museum, we didn't have time.

Then we took a train called Eurostar to Paris. We visited the Eiffel Tower and the Louvre, and we found a wonderful restaurant in the Latin Quarter, but I lost my ID somewhere, so I had to wait at the USA Embassy to get a new one.

When I got my new ID we flew to Tenerife, where it was very, very hot. We stayed a cozy hotel next to the beach, and spent two days there. I swam and sunbathed a lot!

Now we are in Italy, and Rome looks great too. I will write again next week to tell you about everything here.

Love,
Susan
